

Environmental and Climate Change Literacy Projects (ECCLPs)

We aim to educate, activate, and empower all California students by the time they graduate to be literate in climate and environmental justice issues, drivers of solutions, and to become environmental stewards of our planet.

CSU Water Conference
California State University, Fullerton
April 19, 2024

Tamara Wallace
Senior Manager
CSU Chancellor's Office

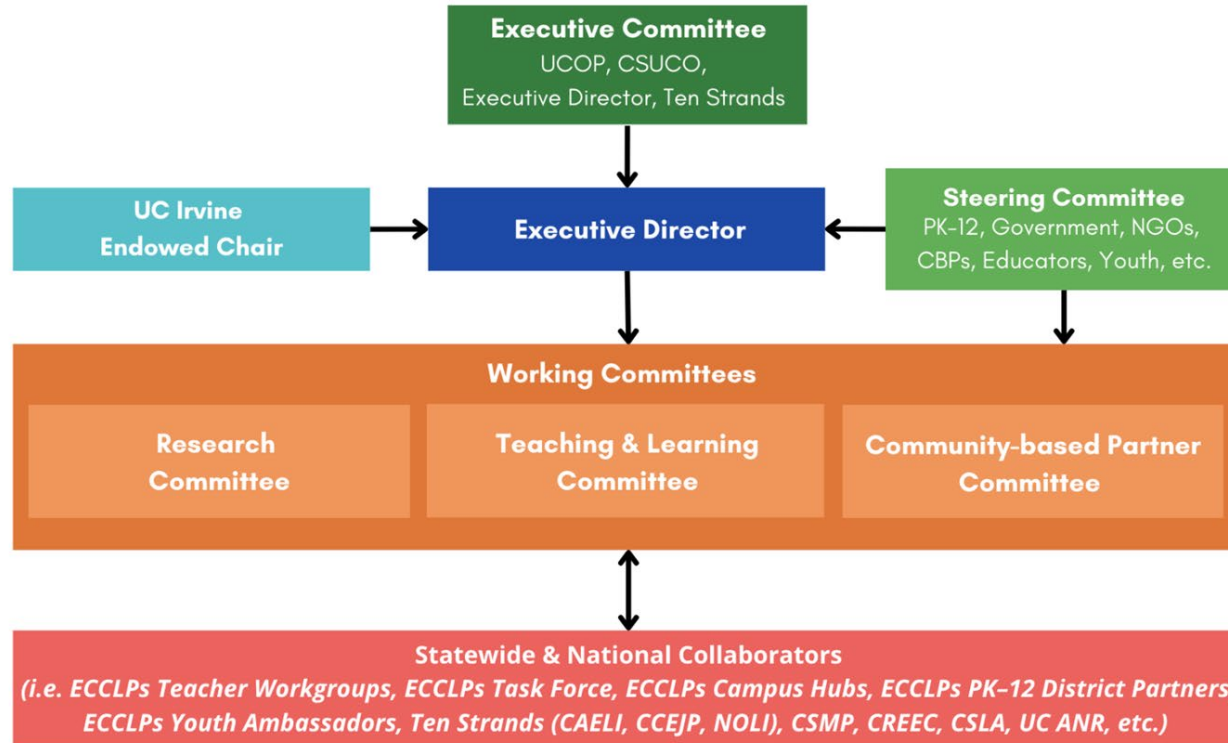

Heather Clark
Assistant Professor
CSUDH

Kelley Lê
Author & Executive Director
UC-CSU ECCLPs

Organization Chart

→ Direction of guidance and/or information

PK-12 School Districts

Environmental and Climate Change Literacy Projects (ECCLPs)

We aim to educate, activate, and empower all California students by the time they graduate to be literate in climate and environmental justice issues, drivers of solutions, and to become environmental stewards of our planet.

CSU Water Conference
California State University, Fullerton
April 19, 2024